

COL. LOWDEN TALKS TO BIG AUDIENCE HERE

PACKED HOUSE IS ENTHUSIASTIC IN ITS RECEPTION OF CANDIDATES.

MANY SPLENDID SPEECHES

McCormick, McKenzie, Mason, Oglesby, Shannahan, Brundage, Emerson and Others.

A great and enthusiastic crowd heard Col. Frank O. Lowden, republican candidate for Governor, and other republican candidates at the mass meeting at Dixon opera house last evening. Before the speaking began every seat in the opera house was filled and it is estimated that 500 people were turned away from the theatre after the house was full.

The meeting was presided over by Atty. Harry Warner, chairman of the Lee County Republican Central committee. The speakers, in the order of their talks, were: Medill McCormick, candidate for Congressman-at-Large; John G. Oglesby, candidate for Lieutenant Governor; Frank O. Lowden, candidate for Governor; E. J. Brundage, candidate for Attorney General; L. L. Emerson, candidate for Secretary of State; Wm. E. Mason, candidate for Congressman-at-Large; David Shannahan, Speaker of the House at Springfield, and Congressman John C. McKenzie, candidate for re-election from this district.

The speeches of all excepting Col. Lowden and Mr. McCormick were necessarily brief. All the candidates have been making hundreds of addresses during the past few days and their voices are near the point of exhaustion. Congressman McKenzie has been in the southwest making speeches for the republican national committee, before he started addressing meetings in his own district. The speeches of every one were especially good, however. Col. Lowden made a special effort to talk to his friends in Dixon. He has been kept from speaking by the condition of his throat for the past several days prior to the Dixon meeting.

Congressman McKenzie closed the meeting in a short but beautiful and eloquent talk to his constituents here and the audience was sorry the Congressman could not have had longer time to speak.

"Chin-Chin" Was Here.

Chin-Chin, the baby elephant that has accompanied the special train on its tour, was on the stage and went through his tricks to the stirring music of the train's life and drum corps.

Fred Sterling of Rockford, chairman of the Republican State Central committee, came to Dixon last night to join the special train.

Lowden's Talk.

Colonel Lowden confined himself mainly to a reply to the charges that Gov. Dunne made from the same platform the night before. He said in part: Gov. Dunne, according to newspaper reports, attempted here last night to make a defense of his administration in the handling of the foot and mouth disease. He seems not yet to have heard that his administration had been advised officially of this disease at Niles, Michigan, ten days before it raised a hand to stay the scourge. He says:

"No earthly power can tell when an outbreak may come; we can only cope with it to the best of our ability when it arrives."

Let me refresh his memory by quoting from the records of his own administration:

In the fall of 1914 the foot and mouth disease broke out in the neighborhood of Niles, Michigan. On Oct. 16, 1914, the following telegram was sent from Niles, Michigan, to the State Veterinarian at Springfield, Illinois:

"We have outbreak of foot and mouth disease in Berrian County, Michigan, at Niles. This is to warn you."

(Signed) GEO. W. DUMPHY, State Veterinarian.

The foot and mouth disease had not yet reached Illinois and certainly the State Veterinarian of Michigan of Michigan was an "earthly power." Instead of acting at once on the startling information given by the JOHN BARRETT Back From Europe With Warning to United States.

John Barrett, director of the Pan-American union, who went aboard to study the effect of the war on South American trade, has just returned with a warning to American merchants who might believe that there would be less foreign competition after the war.

Michigan authorities the Illinois authorities telegraphed to Dr. A. D. Melvin, Chief of Animal Industry, Washington, D. C., as follows:

"Doctor Dumphy reports outbreak of foot and mouth disease, Niles, Michigan. Have you verified diagnosis? If so will depend upon Department to prevent all interstate shipments."

(Signed) O. E. DYSON.

Notwithstanding the fact that Illinois possessed ample power to protect itself, the State Veterinarian attempted to shift the responsibility to the federal authorities instead of employing all powers which they were vested to keep out of the state this dread disease. One whole week elapsed with no action taken. Again the Illinois authorities wired Doctor Melvin under date of Oct. 23, as follows:

"If you consider advisable request Governor to issue proclamation against shipments cattle from districts quarantined account foot and mouth disease."

The next day, Oct. 24, Dr. Mohler of the Bureau of Animal Industry, wired the Illinois authorities as follows:

"Governor's proclamation against shipments livestock from quarantined counties Michigan and Indiana would be self protection."

Two days later, on Oct. 26th, ten days after official notice of the outbreak at Niles, Gov. Dunne's proclamation was finally issued. In the meantime the farmers and livestock dealers in the infected counties in Michigan and elsewhere, knowing no quarantine existed, had ample time to make shipments of cattle and hogs to the Union Stock Yards at Chicago. From there the infection spread rapidly throughout the state.

It appears, therefore, that when finally the governor's proclamation was issued, it was issued not for the protection of the great livestock industry of the state, but for "self protection." Has Gov. Dunne never heard of these telegrams? Does he not know to this day what his administration was doing when one of the great industries of the state was battling for its life?

McCormick Speaks.

Medill McCormick, who has established his residence in Ogle county, near Byron, candidate for Congressman-at-Large, and one of the biggest former "Bull Moosers" in Illinois, said his experience in the progressive party reminded him of the story of the man who went over Niagara Falls in a barrel. When the barrel was washed out of the raging torrent below the falls and its bruised and battered occupant released, he looked back at he falls and said, "Well, I'm glad I

The Greek cabinet has also forbidden further circulation of anti-entente propaganda and has warned the populace that street demonstrations must stop.

It is reported that entente forces are being sent into interior Greece, where uprisings are feared. The entire country will practically be placed under martial law.

AMBOY DERBY IS ABANDONED

"Amboy Race Weather" Forces Cancellation of Events.

"Amboy race weather," the kind that customarily seems to hit this section wherever a big race meeting is planned for that city, put a crimp in things there again this week, and as a result but one day's meeting of the Amboy Derby was pulled off. The promoters this morning announced that the races for today and tomorrow, which were to have been staged for the benefit of the Lee County Fair association, have been called off.

JAMES FOGARTY MET DEATH ON I.C. TRACKS

WAS STRUCK BY CAR NEAR THE FREIGHT DEPOT IN DARKNESS
THURSDAY EVENING.

FUNERAL MONDAY MORNING

Deceased Had Been Employed at the Wire Screen Factory 19 Years.

James S. Fogarty, 903 Jackson avenue, was instantly killed by an Illinois Central switch train in the Dixon yards shortly after 6 o'clock on Thursday evening, while he was returning home from his day's work at the Reynolds Wire Screen factory, where for nineteen years he had been employed as roll man.

The victim had walked as far as the Third street arch with his fellow workmen and there had left them to climb the bank and walk down the tracks to the "Y" and thus proceed home as had been his custom for many years, the tracks being a much shorter route.

Hit By "Kicked" Car.

In the darkness it is presumed he did not hear a car which had been kicked onto the siding, coming behind him, and he was struck. Switchman Harry May, suspecting an accident, notified Agent Luther Bachus, and the investigation which they immediately conducted resulted in finding Mr. Fogarty's body about forty feet north of the Seventh street crossing.

Neck Was Broken.

Mr. Fogarty was dead when found, physicians who had been summoned announcing after their examination that his neck had been broken. His right arm was mangled and a long gash was cut in the left side of his forehead.

The authorities were notified and the unfortunate man's remains were taken to Mrs. Jones' undertaking rooms where Coroner Stephan today conducted an inquest.

Mr. Fogarty was born at LaSalle in 1850 and was married in 1874 to Miss Elizabeth Crimmin, who has since passed away. The family moved to this city 19 years ago and since that time Mr. Fogarty has been known as one of Dixon's industrious and respected citizens. He is survived by four children: Mary and Anna of Dixon, Mrs. B. P. Joy of St. Paul and Charles A. of Oak Park.

Verdict of Accident

A coroner's jury composed of J. F. Haley, M. Blackburn, Wm. Krohn, John Maddox, Carl Tippet and Chas. Engle returned a verdict of accidental death after hearing the evidence.

Funeral Monday

Funeral services will be held at the home at 9:30 o'clock Monday morning and at St. Patrick's church at 10 o'clock.

Emporia, Kas., Oct. 20.—In a blind fight snow storm Roosevelt, speaking from the rear platform of his car here last night told a large crowd: "Kansas, of all states, should resent the phrase 'He kept us out of war.' If Lincoln had kept us out of war there would have been no free state in Kansas."

HUGHES CHAMPION MARATHON HUSTLER

Candidate Has Set New Record as Campaigner.

Bay City, Mich., Oct. 20.—Working eastward across Michigan, Republican Nominee Hughes wound up the last day of his third campaign trip. He will rest for a couple of days in New York and then start out anew on a trip the exact itinerary for which is as yet incomplete. He has speaking dates tentatively arranged in Brooklyn, Boston, Hartford, Terre Haute, Ind.; Columbus, Ohio, and several other midwestern cities.

When Mr. Hughes reached New York he had completed 25,500 miles of campaigning in the three trips since Aug. 5. The mileage of his present trip, which started Oct. 9, totals 5,297, and he has gone at least 300 miles farther in automobiles in that period.

His previous traveling has covered 20,000 miles by railroad and automobile.

No other presidential candidate in history has covered so much territory in appealing to the voters. Since Aug. 5 Hughes has made in the neighborhood of 500 speeches.

Tried for Misconducting Estate.

Ottumwa, Ia., Oct. 20.—William H. Utt of Chicago is on trial here before District Judge C. W. Vermillion on the charge of contempt of court in the alleged mismanagement of his wife's local estate. Utt was indicted last spring for embezzling $450,000 from the estate, but has had that trial postponed.

Postal Inspectors Investigate "Chain Letter" Scheme Which May Be Swindle

It is believed that many Dixon women, as well as hundreds in other cities in northern Illinois, have been victimized by a clever "chain letter" scheme, wherein the perpetrators have made use of unsuspecting women in furthering their scheme. Many ladies in this section during the past few weeks have received copies of the following chain letter:

LETTER
To introduce and advertise our ready to wear goods in the least of time we will give to any one complying with the conditions herein stated, our 1916 model petticoat which retails at $4.50. Give length and color wanted. Make five copies of this and send to five friends, then mail the names and addresses with 10 cents to (Address is here given, but is held pending an investigation by postal authorities to whom copies of the letter have been sent by the Dixon postal authorities) and receive silk petticoat without further expense. This offer is for anyone who wishes to comply with this request.

Letters Are Unavailable.

The whole transaction is in contravention of the postal laws, which strictly forbid the mailing of chain letters. Of course many such letters get through the mails because they are sealed and the postal employees have no way of knowing their contents. Again, it would appear that the scheme constitutes a fraudulent use of the mails, and Dixon postal authorities have taken the matter up with the government inspectors.

TARRIF IS ISSUE OF CAMPAIGN SAYS FORMER GOVERNOR

ROOSEVELT'S FORMER SECRETARY TELLS WHY IT IS SO.

PAYROLL DEPENDS ON TARIFF

American Labor Cannot Compete With Labor That Gets a Few Cents A Day.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 20.—The payroll of the American working man after the close of the European war is the greatest question with which the people of the United States has to grapple, says Leslie M. Snaw, former governor of Iowa and secretary of the treasury during the Roosevelt administration. "And that payroll depends absolutely on the tariff," he says.

Mr. Shaw is campaigning in the west this month. From his home in Dennison, Ia., he is making excursions into all the western states and speaking in the interest of the republican campaign. Driving home to the minds of his hearers that the payroll depends on the tariff, rising or falling according to whether a high or low tariff is in effect, he is hitting the bullseye every day and is exposing the sore spots in the anatomy of the Underwood democratic tariff law.

Governor Shaw has always been particularly appealing to western voters and his presence on the platform in Nebraska, Kansas, Iowa, South Dakota and other western states cannot but have a strengthening effect on the republican hold in those states.

"Many American industries face actual ruin if the close of the European war finds them in the naked and unprepared condition forced upon them by the Underwood tariff," said he. "The tariff is really the great issue of the campaign. We should not forget the conditions which were forced upon American working men both of the farming and the factory classes, by the nine months of the Underwood tariff law before our immense war orders came to help us out of a terrible hole which yawned right in front of us. I tell you the more the people come to understand the real peril of the Underwood tariff law to our American industries and to the welfare of our American working men the more they are inclined to repudiate this democratic measure."

"But the voters this year are demanding facts, not generalities. I said some of our industries will face ruin when the war is over unless they have protection. And when an industry fails, those employed in that industry are out of work. They cannot pay for goods produced by others and so an endless chain of non-producers, non-payers is started. A short time ago I spoke in North Carolina where there are 500 cotton mills within 20 miles of Charlotte. Reliable reports from all but two of these mills indicate they will have to close after the war unless the Underwood tariff law is repealed."

"CIVILIZATION," THE GREATEST PEACE FILM, TO BE SHOWN HERE NEXT WEEK.

Dixon people will have opportunities next Monday and Tuesday to see one of the greatest moving pictures ever filmed, in matinee and night performances. The picture is "Civilization" which comprises everything that has been shown in the massive picture dramas hitherto offered—and then hundreds of things never before comprehended by the camera.

Pacifism is the purpose of the cinema-spectacle, hence it brings in the scenes of battle, combat on land, and sea, submarine torpedo destruction and torpedo devastation. The entire range of war is run that the blessings of peace may be appreciated more.

40,000 Persons in Picture.

Statistically, it is said the picture cost $1,000,000 in the making, that it took a year of Ince's time, that 40,000 persons, not to mention regiments of cavalry and artillery, were employed. All this is believable.

Before the eyes of the audience a whole city is laid in ruins. Into the picture steams a fleet of real battleships, firing broadsides for the destruction of two vessels. As a matter of fact the United States Navy loaned itself for one picture.

Bulletins From Office Of County Agent

DAIRYMEN.

Circular No. 25.

October 18, 1916.

Friday afternoon, October 20th, at 2 o'clock p. m., at the Soil Association office at Amboy, the dairymen will meet to discuss the formation of a Cow Testing association.

Briefly, this means that a Cow Testing association furnishes an inexpensive method of determining which of your cows are profitable and which are unprofitable. The work furnishes the milk, fat and feed records on each cow.

An association is formed by 26 dairymen who employ a man to do the testing. The tester visited each herd one day a month for 12 months. At the end of each year each member has a complete record of the production and cost of each cow and also the herd.

Now the important item. What is the cost? In other associations, the cost is $1.50 per cow per year.

Are results like these worth knowing?

York-Fair Haven Association: First year average, milk production, 4800 lbs.; fat, 188 lbs.

Fourth year average, milk production, 6211 lbs.; fat, 241 lbs. In a good dairy section in Wisconsin 10 per cent of the cows were weeded out by cow testing.

Come to the meeting Friday afternoon at Amboy and hear the work discussed by a man who has done cow testing and knows the work.

Soil Association office, Amboy, Friday one day a month for 12 months. This opportunity will not come off has a complete record of the production and cost of each cow and also the herd.

County Agricultural Agent.

is repealed. Why? Listen. Within the last year the Drapers, the big automobile concern, sent a full train load of automatic looms to Japan to equip cotton mills in that country. In Japan the men work for 21 cents per day, the women for 16 cents and the children for 8 cents. These American looms will turn out just as much cotton goods for these Japanese as they will for Americans. These goods will be sent to what should be American markets and if there is no tariff protection for American mills, these mills must either cut wages to the level of the Japanese, or close up shop entirely. In other words they must close, because cutting wages to Japanese levels or to foreign standards of wages is unthinkable, unendurable, impossible. That is only one instance.

"Here is another instance. In Chicago recently I visited a wholesale establishment and was shown a room filled with American chinaware made in Japan. The models were American, the decorations were American and you couldn't tell them from American made goods. They will be sold in America. Bear in mind that a piece of chinaware is only a penny's worth of clay, plus labor. With no tariff sent around this industry we cannot compete with workmen who use American machinery and work for 21 cents per day without reducing our wage schedule to that of the Japanese. Every chinaware factory in this country faces absolute ruin under the Underwood tariff law. $652,000 worth of mules were exported in 1916, $21,000,000 were sent abroad; horses, 1914, $3,221,000, in issue of this campaign."

When the factories close and the city men have no jobs, you will have no market for your grain and your meats. And did you know that during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1914, under the Underwood tariff, this country imported $375,000,000 more agricultural products than the average for the last four years under republican rule? You lost a market of just that size in the one year of the Underwood tariff. Furthermore there were 4,000,000 men thrown out of employment during the first ten months of that democratic tariff. Unemployed men mean unfed families and unfed families mean a curtailing of your markets. Can you raise wheat as cheaply as any place on earth? Yet during the first ten months of this Underwood tariff Canadian farmers sent into this country four times as much as they did in the corresponding months of the previous year. They paid ten cents per bushel tariff, and still sold the wheat at the same price for which you did yours.

"Our democratic friends tell you this talk about our present prosperity being due to war orders is poppycock. Listen. Before the war, did we export many aeroplanes? In 1914 we sent $198,000 abroad. But in 1916 we sent $6,709,000 worth of aeroplanes to Europe. Did the war do it? In 1914 we sent abroad $6,842,000 worth of brass. In 1916 we sent $132,000,000 worth. Do you suppose those orders were made possible by the demands of the war? In 1914 we sent to Europe $5,877,000 worth of explosives. This year we sent $414,655,000 worth of the same stuff. And surely that was for war. In 1914 we sent out $269,667 worth of zinc. This state where I have spoken the tariff issue and industrial conditions dependent thereon create more interest than all other subjects.

"The American payroll, dependent upon a protective tariff, is the great issue of this campaign."

Error in Computing Totals Sends City's Registration Up 7,000 Higher.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—Chicago's official voting population jumped another 7,000, when the election board completed its official canvass of the number of persons who had registered last Tuesday. Unofficial figures Wednesday morning placed the total for that day and the previous registration held on Oct. 7 at 808,000. The official count brings the number up to 815,022.

It is estimated that probably 4,000 names will be dropped Saturday night, when the election officials begin their work of revision.

WILLIAM THAW IS UNHARMED

GIRLS! HAVE A MASS OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR SOFT, GLOSSY, WAVY

25-cent bottle destroys dandruff and doubles beauty of your hair

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not iten, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you will see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine, and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.

1916, $69,008,000; breadstuffs 1914, $151,939,000, in 1916, $514,655,000. These are just a few items. The total is simply staggering to the mind or the imagination.

"The payroll of the United States in normal times equals that of all the rest of the world combined. But the end of this war come and find our people unprotected; let our factory doors be closed and the payroll begin to drop, drop, drop. Internal complications of the most serious character are inevitable.

"In my speeches I have covered a very wide range and have felt out my audiences with great care. Without hesitation I will say that in every state where I have spoken the tariff issue and industrial conditions dependent thereon create more interest than all other subjects.

"The American payroll, dependent upon a protective tariff, is the great issue of this campaign."

CONGRESS CRITICIZED FOR AIDING CATHOLICS

Presbyterian Pastor Claims Big Sums Are Paid.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 20.—Congress and the administration were subjected to criticism at the annual session of the Illinois synod of the Presbyterian church here because of federal aid amounting to more than $3,000,000, given the Roman Catholic church.

The Rev. A. M. Eells, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Cairo, offered the resolution, and was appointed chairman of a committee which will investigate the subject and make complaint to Washington. In a speech the Rev. Mr. Eells declared that the government has discriminated against Protestant churches and has given from $3,000,000 to $5,000,000 to the Catholic church for missionary purposes. Most of this amount is being used among the Indians on reservations. If the government has undertaken to furnish denominational aid, Mr. Eells said, the Presbyterian and other protestant churches should have a share.

As an alternative the Cairo pastor urged that the synod go on record as supporting a constitutional amendment prohibiting all denominational aid. Such an amendment has already been recommended he said, by several other synods in the country.

E. H. English went to St. Louis Thursday on business.

Mrs. Foster Stanbrough of Route 5 visited Republican headquarters here yesterday.

WOMAN HAD NERVOUS TROUBLE

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her.

West Danby, N. Y.—"I have had nervous trouble all my life until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for nerves and for female troubles and it straightened me out in good shape. I work nearly all the time, as we live on a farm and I have four girls. I do all my sewing and other work with their help, so it shows that I stand it real well. I took the Compound when my ten year old daughter came and it helped me a lot. I have also had my oldest girl take it and it did her lots of good. I keep it in the house all the time and recommend it."—Mrs. DEWITT SINCEBAUGH, West Danby, N. Y.

Sleeplessness, nervousness, irritability, backache, headaches, dragging sensations, all point to female derangements which may be overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from native roots and herbs, has for forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism. Women everywhere bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

ROCHELLE VS DIXON SATURDAY

Football Followers Expect A Great Game Here Tomorrow.

Weather permitting the Dixon high school football team will meet Rochelle high at Athletic park tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock and followers of the game look forward to a real contest, for Rochelle high, which always has a good team, is reported to be casting eyes at the district championship. The Dixon team on its excellent showing thus far this season, has shown championship calibre and therefore tomorrow's battle should be a hot one.

Miller hall, very prettily decorated in keeping with the significance of October and in American flags, was the scene of a pretty gathering
Tuesday evening when a large crowd of Spanish war veterans, their wives, and the auxiliary, gathered for a social evening. A good time surely prevailed, made all the more enjoyable through the efforts of the entertainment committee. At 8:30 a musical program was given on an Edison Diamond Disc, loaned the committee by J. E. Moyer. Such selections as "America, I Love You," military marches, and others equally appropriate, as well as a seasonable admixture of the comic, added much to the pleasure of the guests.
The Edison was also used to furnish music for dancing, which, together with Euchre, was the diversion of the evening. Refreshments of pumpkin pie, ginger cookies, coffee, and mints were served.

MEETING THE SHOCK OF WAR.

The Wilson administration makes the claim that the United States was enabled to "meet the shock of the war" through the enactment of the Federal Reserve Act.

On August 4, 1914, Secretary McAdoo issued a statement in which he said:

"The passage by unanimous vote of the House and Senate this afternoon of the Federal act whereby the Secretary of the Treasury is vested with power to issue additional currency in such amount exceeding $500,000,000 as in his judgment may be necessary to protect the business in the country, puts at rest any question as to the ability of the banks to take care of the situation.

"There need be no fear whatever of insufficient currency to move the crops and to meet the demands of business."

The act to which Secretary McAdoo referred was not the Federal Reserve Act, but the Aldrich-Vreeland Act passed under a republican administration and assailed in every manner of attack by the democratic leaders.

WHO KEPT THEM OUT OF WAR.

Mr. Wilson's contention that he alone has kept this country out of war and that unless he is re-elected the nation will be plunged into war has raised an interesting question as to how, without Mr. Wilson, the little neutral nations of Europe have been kept out of war. There is little Switzerland, surrounded by the belligerents; Holland and Denmark in an almost similar position; Sweden and Norway in close proximity and Spain adjoining France and with naval engagements right off her shores. Who, or what, kept them out of war? How did they survive and keep the peace without a Woodrow Wilson? Of course it might be suggested that they have been kept out of war by the fact that the belligerents had their hands full and no one of them wanted to increase the number of its enemies. But that argument would apply equally to the United States and would support the contention of Senator Root that never in the history of the United States has it been easier to keep out of war than during the European conflict, and that it is a wicked argument because it robs Mr. Wilson of his only claim to re-election.

THEY WANT LOWDEN.

Genuine enthusiasm was the feature of the republican mass meeting at the Opera House last evening. Every speaker on the program was given the most careful attention and the talks were received in a manner that was a sure indication of the sentiment of the crowd.

And last night's crowd in Dixon was only a sample of the audiences the special train has been having all over Illinois, from Cairo to Galena. The people of this state want a Republican Governor and a Republican President. They want Lowden and Hughes. And furthermore, they need them.

"Billy" Mason can stir up fun at a political meeting just as well as ever.

TEUTONS DRIVEN FROM ROUMANIA

London, Oct. 20.—That the Roumanians have cut off and destroyed the Teutonic column which, a few days ago, invaded the domain of King Ferdinand by way of the Gyemes Pass, and reached Agas, ten miles within the frontier, is indicated by the announcement from Bucharest. This says:

"One of our detachments passing by way of Lampiris Mountain to Agas in the Trotus Valley, attacked the enemy with bayonet and destroyed twelve of its cannon and limbers. It forced the enemy to retire and captured 600 prisoners."

Three hundred more Austro-Germans were seized in the same region, it is declared, an other detachment, attacking from Soioasa, being surprised in the defense of the frontier.

Second Expulsion.

Expulsion by way of the Gyemes Pass means the second expulsion from Roumanian territory within the week. It has been reported from Bucharest, whose statements are regarded as suspiciously conservative, that the troops of General von Falkenhayn have been driven over the frontier in the Uzel valley.

Moreover, on the southern Transylvanian front the Roumanians hurled the invaders beyond the border at Predeal and gained ground at the Bran defile.

August F. Gehant and F. H. Delhotal will do much tiling on their farms this fall and have already ordered four carloads of large tile from the local factory. These will consist of 12 and 8 inch sizes to form the main channel for the outlet. From these will radiate strings of smaller tile to reach every point and thoroughly drain the land. Modest Vincent is having similar work done on his place, tiling machines doing the work. J. E. Henry, F. J. Gehant, George Lauer, Geo. B. Theiss, Frank Ford, J. F. Bernardin, Henry Salzhan and others whom we do not recall are tiling their farms and securing the tile at the local yards.

Wm. Untz was in town Friday.

Ed Duffy of Maytown has leased the Johnson and Gehant lands, adjoining town and will move to West Brooklyn next spring to reside. He is a brother-in-law of J. W. Loan of our town and this relationship perhaps accounts for Mr. Duffy locating here.

A. P. Case and son have been spending the week here while doing fall plowing on the F. M. Yocum farm, which they will till next year.

Adolph Bauer of Lee Center township was here Friday.

Henry P. Gehant is in receipt of a sample of the potato crop in the vicinity of Blunt, S. D., where he has sold over 4,000 acres of land to local people and all here are surprised at the product and yield. One patch of 28 acres lying near the D. O. Fairchild farm yielded over 5600 bushels and sold on the premises for $6,400 net. This land was valued at $10 per acre so the interest on the man's investment was only about 500%.

On Sunday about 50 neighbors and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Henkel Sr. gathered at their home south of town to surprise the family, which includes Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Henkel and Christian Henkel, before their removal to Mendota. The day was a happy one for all and it was late in the evening when the guests departed but none could say the day had been too long. The family are royal entertainers and even though taken by surprise they were not at a loss to show the "always welcome" spirit. We regret to see these good people leave West Brooklyn but Mendota is only about ten miles away so they will return often and there will be one more home in Mendota where we can call when in that city. West Brooklyn now has quite a settlement in Mendota and everyone is a credit to the place. They are the Yosts, Halboths, Ladenbergers, Hoerners, Kellers and perhaps others and all are the kind of citizens all are anxious to have move into our towns. They help make them better.

F. D. Gehant went to Aurora Monday on business connected with the hardware store. On account of train service he motored to Mendota and took a train from there.

We had no morning passenger on Monday but had a train about 12:30. The engine broke down at Harmon and could only reach Amboy on its journey to Shabbona so the cars had to wait until an extra from Aurora could come to Amboy to pull them in. The teachers were on the train at Ar. boy but got here by automobile.

C. F. Guffin and F. G. Knauer motored to Chicago to see the auto faces Saturday.

Henkel-Untz.

In St. Mary's church Wednesday at 9 a. m. occurred the ceremony which united the lives of Miss Thressa Untz and John A. Henkel of our village. Rev. Leo Henkel, a brother of the groom, performed the service, assisted by the local pastor, Rev. M. B. Krug.

The couple were attended by Miss Caroline Untz, a sister of the bride, and Henry Henkel, a brother of the groom.

The bride wore a beautiful dress of white satin trimmed with pearls and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Her sister wore a dress of pink satin and carried pink roses. The new were dressed in black.

St. Mary's choir sang the Mass, Miss Leafy Gehant presiding at the organ, and as the bridal party entered the church she played Mendelssohn's wedding march.

After the services at the church the wedding party repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where a wedding feast awaited them. A monster tent was raised on the spacious lawn and underneath the spreading trees where the tables were set guests to the number of 96 were feasted. These consisted of the nearest relatives of the contracting parties, and among them were folks from Nebraska, Kansas and Iowa, as well as other distant points where members of the two families have made their homes. The dwelling was artistically decorated in autumn leaves and flowers and the scene was very beautiful.

During the afternoon the bridal party visited the photographer at Mendota and returned in time to be host and hostess at the big evening entertainment prepared by the parents of the bride in their honor. The people enjoyed dancing until a late hour and as the day was nearly perfect everyone enjoyed the event thoroughly.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Untz who reside a mile north of West Brooklyn and is a charming lady, loved by all and possessed of those estimable traits that go to make a good character. Her husband is a son of Mr. and Mrs.

John J. Henkel who reside two miles south of town and has always been numbered among our industrious and thrifty young men. Fraternally he is a member of the local court Catholic Order of Foresters and is always ready to assist the community in getting ahead.

Mr. and Mrs. Henkel will reside on a farm south of town and we are sure theirs will be a happy home. We extend our hearty congratulations and trust their lives together will be long and prosperous.

COL. LOWDEN TALKS TO LARGE CROWD HERE

did it, but I never want to do it again." McCormick, who is a very eloquent speaker, said in part:

This is a campaign which calls for candor. There can be no profit to the people of Illinois or to the candidates of either party in the exchange of charges and counter-charges which are not based on fact. We are not interested in adjectival competition. We have nothing to gain by beclouding the issues, because the facts are with us. We cannot mislead the people nor can the representatives of the democratic party, who seek to be continued in office by the forthcoming election. I come to the discussion without bitterness, but very ready to engage in controversy as to the responsibility for the present cost of the state government, and as to the relative merits of our program and that of our opponents.

The Governor is responsible for the staggering increase in the cost of government in Illinois. Appropriations by the general assembly have increased 50 per cent since he took the oath of office. The Governor is responsible for the increase, not exclusively but chiefly responsible. I would not have the members of the Assembly evade any of their meagre share in that responsibility, which must rest first upon the Governor, and incidentally, upon his associates in the administration of our affairs.

That responsibility is accentuated because the administration sought election four years ago on the issue of economy. From Cairo to Galena, from the Wabash to the Mississippi their spokesmen condemned "the outrageous and increasing taxation upon all citizens, as the result of extravagance of the republican officials of the state of Illinois."

The judgment thus expressed in the democratic platform was affirmed by the candidate for governor: "I will stand for the abolition of public extravagance," he said, "and the elimination of all useless offices."

An effort has been made, not only to absolve the administration from all responsibility for the increase in the cost of government, but to place that responsibility upon the legislature; the administration's friends paradoxically claiming credit for legislation passed by the very assembly of which they have disavowed all control.

The facts concern you and claims only as they are borne out by the facts. The Governor denounced as extravagant the sum of appropriations made by the 47th general assembly under a republican administration. They totalled 30 million dollars. The appropriations of the 48th general assembly, the first under Gov. Dunne's administration aggregated 38 millions, an increase of $4,000,000 a year.

Here was an increase to challenge the condemnation of any professed economist; here was an increase which if it could not be prevented, required of an economist vigorous action to prevent its recurrence in the future. The governor said of it:

"While I regret the apparent increase in appropriations for the ensuing biennium, I believe it to be my duty to state that in the aggregate they are unavoidable."

I have asserted that the present state administration asked of the 49th general assembly 50 per cent more than was appropriated by the 47th assembly under his predecessor. In 1915 the 49th general assembly received from the executive a budget of estimated expenditures calling for $4,500,000, or 50 per cent more than the 47th assembly had expended by the 47th Borden factory, 5 room house, 2 lots, general assembly, so generously condemned by the democracy in the campaign of 1912. That budget was produced, electric lights, barn, etc. Terms $1500 cash, balance back on premium of 2% for all cash. Abandoned by the Legislative Reference Bureau of the 48th general assembly. See R. H. Scott, of which a majority of the members Atty., Warner-Lottus Bldg. Phone 131. George Fruin, Auct. 248 6 ernment, in conformity with law, submitted estimates to the bureau. Then the governor revised their estimates. Therefore, the budget presented by the bureau was a budget of estimates prepared by the officers of the state administration and revised by the governor.

If it were profitable to continue the rather tedious recital of facts I could add, not to the proof, for I have proved the responsibility of the administration for the increase in the cost of government, but to the sum of the evidence in proof of that responsibility. I do not doubt that before the election it was the intention of the state administration to reduce the cost of government. I do not doubt that as time sped on the administration still cherished the elusive, the fascinating and altogether harmless idea of economy, but it is the hard truth that economy was not accomplished. Other interests, other hopes, other visions diverted its attention from the dull and heavy task of administrative reorganization; the task of retrenchment by reducing salaries and places, repugnant at all times, and to all parties, but never more so than to a party newly in power after long years in the wilderness.

Gov. Dunne charges that I voted for some appropriation bills and that I did not vote for others.

I voted for some, high as they were, because they could not be amended and their passage was necessary for the up-keep of some departments. I did not waste time in voting against others because I was needed in committee trying to undo the damage done by the governor's administration. There were 80 appropriation bills at the last session. The real road to reform lies through a budget system.

The democratic platform says it is for a budget. But only so long ago as when Representative Provine introduced his budget bill in the regular session of the 49th general assembly, the administration was against it. It is the vice of the present law that although the administration is responsible for the estimates of expenditures submitted to the Reference Bureau and published by it, the clerical duties of the bureau, prescribed by law, tolerate the obscuring of executive responsibility. The bill which Mr. Provine and I drew, and which he introduced, would have cured this defect if it had become law. The bill was referred to the Appropriations committee, of which the chairman reported that the governor was opposed to its enactment.

Music At Start.

The Moose band played a concert before the meeting opened and Elmer Rice, accompanied by Miss Myrtle Rice, sang "America, I Love You."

Col. Lester of Chicago, who spoke in Dixon years ago during the campaign of James G. Blaine, and Editor John Harrison of the Danville Commercial-News, were with the Lowden party and were seated on the platform.

Senator "Billy" Mason had all his old time "pep." He delighted the audience with his humor and told them truths about this political campaign and its issues.

David Shannahan, speaker of the House, told the women of Dixon that he believed they would give as good an account of themselves as the men in election day.

Last night's republican meeting was the greatest and most successful political gathering that has been held in Dixon in many years and the local republican leaders are getting a great deal of satisfaction from its success as an indication of the trend of public sentiment.
